THE CITY OF SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO.—The undersigned beg leave to inform the public that a survey of the city of south San Francisco has just been completed, and a map of the city is now to be seen at the store of De Boom, Vigneaux & Grisar, on Clay street.

The site is located on the Bay of san Francisco, two miles southerly of the city of san Francisco, and in plain sight of the shipping in the harbor.

The same depth of water which is found in the harbor of the city of san Francisco, is to be found in the harbor of the city of south san Francisco and along the bay between the two harbors.

The harbor is more securely protected from the wind than the harbor of the city of san Francisco, and ships of the heaviest burden may lay within a boats length of the land at many points, and quite close generally along the whole front of the city, affording the best facilities for discharging cargo.

The land rises in a gentle slope from the water, and is composed of a rich clay soil.

There are extensive stone quarries, and springs of fine running water are found on the face of the hill in many places.

The character of the soil always keeps the air free from dust or sand; the surrounding scenery is highly picturesque, and a more pleasant place for residences, or a more convenient place for business is not to be found on the bay.

A stream of the finest water in California, and sufficient in quantity to water both cities, and all the shipping that ever may lay in their harbors, forms the northern boundary of the city, and will be conducted into a reservoir for such purposes.

The only practicable route for a good road from the city of san Francisco to san Jose, will pass through south san Francisco, crossing the mouth of Mission creek and the mouth of the creek just alluded to.

From san Francisco to san Jose and Monterey is one of the best natural roads in the world, and passing on this road from south san Francisco, you travel along a beautiful valley of hard grass land to the puertesuelo, a distance of less than two miles.

Persons desious of seeing the city will go out on the old Mission road, and will find the Mission about half way.

It is but a short ride—go out and see for yourselves, and if you wish to purchase lots that will shortly equal in value those of the city of san Francisco, call on the subscribers at the store of De Boom, Vigneaux & Grisar.

JOHN TOWNSEND,
CORNEILLE DE BOOM.

P. S. On the first day of October the price of lots will be raised from one hundred dollars to one hundred and fifty dollars. xiis20 13t

☞ TO THE SUBSCRIBERS OF THE CALIFORNIA LOTTERY.—The managers of this lottery respectfully notify their friends and the public, that they have this day transferred their entire interest therein to the promoters of "The American Lottery," which is based upon a principal generally adopted in the States, and they do not doubt but that the unquestioned integrity of the conductors of the American Lottery, combined with the facilities possessed by them for future business, will render general satisfaction.

PACIFIC NEWS.

Thursday, Sept. 27, 1849.

The Weekly Pacific News for the Steamer Oregon.

Will be ready for delivery on Saturday next at 12 o'clock. It will contain a carefully prepared Price Current, Review of the Market, &c. &c. &c. Those who may desire to forward by the Steamer, papers containing the news, doings, &c. of San Francisco, and vicinity, for the month ending on Saturday next, consisting of about eighty-six columns of solid matter, will be supplied with the Pacific Weekly News (four numbers) done up in wrappers, at one dollar for the sett complete. Early engagements are suggested.

"Joint Stock Associations."

How much was said about "California Joint Stock Associations," and how much parade was made in the way of meetings, organization, &c. &c., previous to the departure of the numerous companies who have arrived at San Francisco within the past few weeks. Never was an enterprise entered into with so much eagerness—never one more blindly, so far as the plan of association and expenditure is considered. Thousands and thousands of dollars were invested by men in the purchase of vessels, merchandise and the numerous implements for mining, which is now of no more benefit to them than if the same amount of money had been thrown into the sea.—"Associations" have proved entirely useless and impracticable, and the investments a mistake, which retards, instead of advancing, the interests of a great majority of those who were induced to believe that a unity of interests could long hold together a body of men in California. Daily do we meet with men who are crippled in their resources and delayed in their action by the slow progress of winding up the affairs of "Joint Stock Companies" and if they do not curse most roundly those with whom they were so lovingly united, they are sure to bemoan most piteously the entire failure of every calculation based upon an arrangement thus foolishly entered into.—The fact is, almost every man thus situated, finds, after his arrival here, that his views, with reference to operations in California, were entirely erroneous—that instead of investing every dollar in a joint stock co-partnership and becoming equal owner in ten thousand worthless inventions and preparations, the merits and indispensableness of which were puffed up by the ignorant and designing, they had simply come with cash in hand and independent of any association, they would have acted more wisely and have found themselves altogether better conditioned for a successful commencement of operations in California than they are now with a joint interest in a quantity of trash, which in very many cases is not of sufficient value to pay the freight on its transportation.

We have been amused on several occasions lately by the unwillingness displayed by members of "joint stock companies," to acknowledge that they were ever led into any such bond of union.—If a ship arrives to-day bringing a "Mining Association," each member thereof is looked upon as being in a fix, at least for the present. He is fettered in action—for mining co-equally is a thing yet to be heard of—and if he leaves the company and commences some operation, whether it be a search for gold or other pursuit, on his own individual account, his stock is forfeited. Quarreling, overreaching, and slander, is the result of the whole matter, and this is all that the much talked of "Trading and Mining Associations in California," so far as we have been enabled to ascertain, have amounted to.

Population of San Francisco--

CHINESE EMIGRATION—THEIR HABITS—CHINESE BUILDINGS.

☞ The population of San Francisco is composed of representatives from every quarter of the globe, and we may remark, without fear of contradiction, that as a whole, a better or more respectable population, cannot be found in any city in the world. It is true that we have—and what community has not—among us a few of the baser sort--a class of vagabonds over whom the executors of the law exercise a watchful vigilance—but tell us of a city, containing the same amount of population, where under immensely less exciting circumstances, so few breaches of the peace and so small an amount of crime is committed as in San Francisco. The character of our population may be estimated pretty correctly by our friends in the States and elsewhere, by the standing of those who have emigrated from their immediate districts and neighborhoods; which, as a general thing, we believe it has been acknowledged is composed of the most enterprising and industrious of the various sections from whence emigration has emanated.

But we were intending to speak more particularly of the Chinese. We are so fortunate as to be located in a section of the town where large numbers of Chinese have pitched their tents, and we have remarked with much interest, the character and habits of these people. From early morn until late in the evening, these industrious men are engaged in their occupation of house builders, of which a great many have been exported from China, and the quietness and order, cheerfulness and temperance, which is observable in their habits, is noticed by every one. Search the city through and you will not find an idle Chinaman, and their cleanliness exceeds any other people we ever saw.

The buildings brought from China are generally twenty feet square--one-story in height—and twelve feet from the floor to the ceiling. The timbers are round and many of them very crooked. We have noticed, in several instances, the erection of China buildings of double the size described above--but we suppose that in such cases two separate frames are erected together, thus forming a single building. The first movement after raising the frame is to attach the window, which consists of a frame and blinds, without sash. The blind is so constructed as to close itself by its own weight—the slat being of double width outside. The timber is very uniform in size, and about six or eight inches in diameter. The boards are well seasoned and resemble American cedar. The price of a Chinese building, such as we have described, including the erection, is $1500. The building, however, consists of simply the frame and covering. They are brought from Hong Kong.

For the Pacific News.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We have now been in California long enough to have the rust and scurvy of Cape Horn rubbed off, and to be able to expand our optics in a manner somewhat commensurate with the dimensions of the place. This is indeed a "tall country," and will require fencing and ditching speedily, or will be entirely overrun. The Lord only knows when it will be finished, but as it already appears in the rough, it beats the States all hollow.

The gambling, blackleging and dissipation of New Orleans—the infinite variety of New York—with a generous sprinkling of Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Baltimore, et cetera, are all here in elegant confusion. I had proposed, with others, to leave for the backwoods at once on my arrival, to delve for the glittering treasure, but was so utterly amazed and confounded at the novel and astounding scenes which surrounded me on landing, that I determined, as the b'hoys say, to "learn the ropes" here, before proceeding onward. I have already consumed a fortnight, and hav'nt seen half the sights. As I have sweat out my pile, I am now about starting for the mines in order to replenish. Proposing to tarry some time at Jericho, I shall return from time to time to repeat my perigrinations. I have already become somewhat familiar with the "diggins" hereabouts, and a motley group of long-shore squatters—(excuse the term, 'tis only to express the facility with which they anchor, and anon, take up their beds and walk.) I have visited your churches and heard good sermons to devout congregations, apparently. I have marked your brokers and merchants, and seen them do business at a "killing pace" which would knock the spots out of the bulls and bears of Wall street, and put to shame the money changers of St. Charles. I have been in your gambling hells and placed my paltry ounce- everything goes by ounces here—long side the pond'rous pile of the shabbiest ranchero of the crowd, losing his thousands on the turn of the cards, and departing with the utmost "sang froid" to dig his thousands more. I dropt into your prison and court room; several criminals occupied the one; among others, he who counts the moments as they pass, ticking him on to eternity.—He shuffles off his mortal coil somewhere about the 26th of October, for putting a quietus on a French citizen—making manifest the truth of the old adage, murder will out, and demostrating even in California, that justice, though slow, is equally sure. The deuce seemed to pay among the lawyers, and being a sort of professional amateur, I enjoyed the court scene prodigiously. What seemed an important case, involving the construction of a charter party, with damages laid at some $15.000, was on the tapis, and a little game chicken, I think a "blue" one, from Jersey, was knocking the "old uns" about, as they say very appropriately, in California, with a "perfect looseness" He is evidently "some punkins" in the profession and must have stood some what at home. A flea in his ear—young friend, stick up a shingle at once and pursue your legitimate calling, there's your mine.

The Alcalde seems a plain, strait forward, common sense man, and at the close of the plaintiff's testimony, on motion of defendant's attorney, scientifically enforced by our young friend, judiciously advised a discontinuance of the suit, which was creditably followed by plaintiff's counsel; a young man, by the by, of fine appearance and address, with apparently a fair share of ability. Thus ended the first lesson, leaving a highly favorable impression of the method of conducting cuases and administering the laws in a society which has already run to weed, not to say waste, which has far outstripped the growth of precept and precedent. From the court I proceeded to the Custom House, which from appearances, and the corresponding reflection of the harbor, will soon rival New York and New Orleans. I have rolled down the clay and sand to fill in your wharves, and your vallies. I have rode your Mexican horses, spurs, lasso, back-breaking saddles and all--drove your Spanish asses, and your native cattle. Have feasted at your restaurants side by side, seemingly with Dives and Lazarus, the one clothed in purple and fine linen, the other covered with rags and sores. Both paying at a rate which would have caused Crœsus to stare; and both in reality, perhaps, personating their opposites. The tatters binding the wealth of the one, the tinsel the poverty of the other. I have accomplished this much already, besides alternately lounging and sleeping in your plaza and your "happy valley," and the tale is not half told. On my return from the mines with the needful, I shall finish the circuit and furnish you with the particulars, till then,

AD. EU.

Police Intelligence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.

Jose Odiea arrested for stealing a box of sarsaparilla from the store of Geo. S. Wardle & Co., corner of Montgomery and Pacific streets. Messrs. Wardle & Co., had stolen from them on Sunday night, 15 kegs of butter, and strong suspicions are entertained that prisoner was also engaged in that transaction.

Thomas Clark was arrested by officer Casserley, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct in front of the Exchange Hotel.

William S. Davis was taken by assistant Capt. Beek, from "Our House," in Washington street, for fighting and being very drunk. Fined $25, which being paid he was discharged.

John C. Brown, carpenter in the navy, was taken from the street while laboring under that dreadful disease, delirium tremens, and sent by Police to the U. S. ship Warren, Capt. Long, who refused to receive him. He was brought back and now lays in one of the canvass houses, not expected to live.

J B. Hamblin arrested for being drunk and disorderly.

Eulious Straleous, drunk and disorderly.

Samuel Brown, deserter from U. S. schooner Ewing, was taken by Lieut. Bartlett. and Police officer Colvin, and sent on board U. S. ship Warren. While Brown was being taken to station house, he broke from the officers and ran for dear life; but the gallant Lieut. was too much for him on a foot race. Brown ran across the square, down Washington street, fell over a pile of dirt and came down on all fours; the Lieut. escaped the dirt, but fell over Brown, and passed on, horizontally, some ten feet, but was up before Brown, and had him properly secured, ironed, and sent on board of the Warren.

George Oliver, arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was very indignant to think "that a citizen of the United States, seventeen thousand miles from home, could not get as drunk as he d——d pleased, and make a little noise, without being put in a bloody country school house with a parcel of negroes.

EXTENSIVE FURNISHING HOUSE.—Simmons, Lilly & Co. have just taken possession of their new store, constructed of iron, on Sacramento street, and it is, without question, the best arranged establishment in San Francisco, where every thing that a gentleman may want in the way of apparel, as well as ten thousand notions which we have not time to enumerate, may be purchased at very reasonable prices. For further particulars see their advertisements in this paper, and give them a call.

☞ We are requested to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Seltzer water and hanging paper, for sale at the California house. We have before alluded to the choice selection of Chinese fancy articles on sale at the same establishment.

REPORTED WRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.—A letter, to the Eastport Sentinel, dated Rio de Janeiro, April 2, says:

There is a report that the ship Florrido from New York to California, was lost off the River Platte, and 200 lives lost.—Many of the vessels in here have had long passages—some seventy-five days; many have lost spars and had a hard time. There have been one or two men sent to the mines; one for knocking down one of the Emperor's guards was sentenced to be shot, but his sentence was commuted at the intercession of our counsel.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The number of communicants in the Presbyterian Church in the United States at the close of May, 1849, was 200,830—an increase of 72,718 in ten years. The number of ministers was 6860, and of churches 2512.

The Kentucky Tragedy.

CASSIUS M. CLAY'S RENCONTRE.—We find in the Richmond (Ky.) Chronicle, a letter from Cassius M. Clay, addressed to T. I. Goddin, Esq., the editor, relating to his recent rencontre with Mr. Turner, at Foxtown, Ky., on the 15th ult. The letter is very long, and much of it in relation to the situation and motives of the parties before the occurrence of any personal assault. We extract only those parts bearing upon the affray:

I now began to feel for the first time that there was a concerted purpose to defame, silence, and, perhaps, assault me. I went into the room where my carpet-bag was lodged, and put on a knife seven inches in length and an inch and one-eighth in breadth, which I usually carry for self-defence, and returned to the stand; for my instincts as a man, as well as my usefulness as a citizen, had determined me never to submit to personal indignity. I do not deny that I have other and more efficient weapons of defence than this knife, but so slight was my apprehension of assault that I was lulled into false security. * *

I was about getting down from the stand when Mr. Turner again ascended the stand, and disclaimed that Runyon was his tool. I then said, "He makes himself your tool, your willing tool," and stepped off the stand. I then remarked in an under tone that this was the second time that Runyon had attempted to raise a row with me. Cyrus Turner (the eldest son of S. Turner) immediately gave me the damned lie, and struck me simultaneously.

Cyrus Turner and myself had heretofore been upon friendly terms; I had not spoken to him that day; I did not address my remarks to him; I therefore regarded him as following in the wake of Runyon. I threw off my cloak and attempted to draw my knife; C. Turner caught my hand, but I at length succeeded in drawing it. As quick as thought my hand was seized by a third party.—Turner then let me go, and commenced striking me feebly in the face with his fist, and the knife was wrested from my hand. I then struck Turner a violent blow on his left cheek with my right hand, which staggered him back against the crowd; whether he fell or not I do not know. Being assailed from behind, I turned, and seeing my knife in the possession of some person, for which apparently there seemed to be a struggle, I seized it with my right hand, and twisting it with my left (cutting three of my fingers,) I succeeded in recovering it.—For a short time I was insensible, probably the effect of violent blows; I then heard the bursting of a cap; I found I was unable to see; I therefore retreated a few paces out of the dense crowd. My son Warfield, fourteen years old, came up to me crying, and offered me an old pistol, three inch barrel, which I had given him some years before; this I rejected as an inefficient weapon. So soon as I recovered my sight, and perceived where Cyrus Turner was, I made towards him; he retreated with the crowd; the crowd giving way behind him he fell, when I attempted to strike him, or did strike him in the abdomen with my knife. I was then borne away, believing myself mortally wounded; I appealed to the crowd to witness that I fell in defence of the liberties of the people.

My first impression was, that the man who took my knife from me had stabbed me with my own knife; but every one who has seen the wound and the knife, pronounce it physically impossible. I was struck on the fifth right rib, the knife turned partially round and passed up in the direction of the left breast. I do not remember at what time I was stabbed; I know neither who took the knife, nor who stabbed me—Cyrus Turner admitted that he did not. I know not who struck me—it is admitted on all hands, by friend and foe, that Alfred Turner, (cousin of Squire Turner) struck me several violent blows with a stick. Thomas Turner admits that he bursted three caps at me with a six barrel revolver, and was proceeding to fire, when my friend Wm. Wilkerson threw him under the table; whilst many others whom I forbear to name at present, seemed to be aiding and abetting. My friend Wiatt Wilkerson was badly cut in the arm with a knife. I supposed for several days that I was stabbed in the right side, near the back bone, but it must have been the result of a severe blow; I suffered acute pain in my right shoulder, for near ten days; this too was produced by severe blows.

It is probable I had as many friends on the ground as Turner, but they were paralized by surprise, whilst I must do my opponents the justice to say that they acted with a speed, concentration and energy worthy of a better cause and better success. After I was borne into the house, I could hear C. Turner's groans in another room; I asked what was his condition? I was told that he was not fatally wounded. I then sent him word "that I rejoiced that I had not given him a mortal wound;" he returned for answer, "that he had not stabbed me:" and I understood before his death imputed no blame to me. Truth requires me to say that Cyrus Turner's life and character had inspired me with the same respect which is felt by the citizens of Madison county generally. Whilst I regret his death, not upon me rests the responsibility of its necessity.

Now in the third week I still linger and suffer from the wound, unable to have my bed made up. In this condition I have dictated the preceding statement to an amanuensis. C. M. CLAY.

July 2, 1849.

The closing of the California Mail affords an opportunity to advise our readers in the Gold Region to observe great caution in making their remittances to friends in the United States. We learn that parties have gone out to California for the purpose of selling drafts on New York, New Orleans, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston, in exchange for gold dust, and although such drafts may be perfectly good, and probably are, we would be disposed to make strict enquiries into the character and standing of the drawers before we took them in exchange for gold.—New York Sun.

From the Panama Star.

GO IT, CRIPPLES.—Panama is a dangerous place for Americans. The poor fellows are dying daily—some of cholera—some of fever—some from fatigue—and we fear if many are permitted to witness some of the scenes which we have witnessed, we shall be called upon to chronicle the fate of some who have "died a laughing." W. were leaning out of a window at the house of a friend, when we observed two cripples (beggars) on the point of passing each other on the narrow side-walk. One had a crutch, and the other, unable to use his lower limbs, had a small strip of board upon which he leaned to protect his hand from the rough pavement, as he dragged his weary frame along. A dispute arose between them, as to which should take the outside of the walk—both seemed determined to have the outside. Finding that he of the board would not yield, he of the crutch sat himself down, arms a kimbo, and legs stretched out, completely blocking up the passage. This did not suit the ideas of him of the board—he became enraged, and snatching his opponent's crutch from his hand, he dealt out the blows on the skull of the owner, with such a force and rapidity as seemed hardly possible for one so crippled. It seemed to us as if every whack would have knocked in the side of a house, but the iron cranium of the old darkey seemed invulnerable. Suddenly, two of those busy bodies who are in every body's business, yclept Gens. d'Armes appeared, and seizing him of the crutch, they dragged him off to the calaboose, amid the barking of dogs, crowing of roosters, and giggling of the Senoritas. It was really a most laughable affair.

PHENOMENON AT SEA.—The ship Portsmouth, just arrived at Warren, R. I. from a whaling cruise reports that on the 18th of March, lat. 57, lon. 74 W., she experienced a severe gale. While scudding before it, a dense cloud gathered in the West, out of which issued a violent hurricane and many balls of fire. One of these struck the cutting pendants at the mainmast head and fell in fragments on the deck, setting fire to the mast head and rigging, and doing other damage. We do not remember ever to have heard of such an occurrence at sea.—Boston Paper.

LAST DEGREE OF RELATIONSHIP.—A Hoosier stepped on board a steamboat as she was lying at a certain port on the Ohio river, and bawled out, "Is the Captain aboard?"

The captain, who was standing among the crowd, responded, "Yes what do you want with him?"

"Oh, nothing particular, he's a distant relation of mine, and I'd like to see him."

"A relation of yours?" inquired the captain, somewhat surprised.

"Yes, a slight relation, he's the father of my first child."

You'd better believe the captain sloped, while the crowd enjoyed the sport to their heart's content.

CAUTION.—Whereas, one J. A. Sutter has published a notice, in which he claims title to the land on the east bank of the Sacramento river, between the Feather river and the American Fork, I hereby notify the public that I am the only legal owner of the said land, under a warranty deed from J. A. Sutter himself, dated Aug. 10, 1843; and I therefore caution all persons that no legal title can be acquired to the same, or to any portion thereof, except through me. Justice to myself requires me to add that I shall hold the said J. A. Sutter legally responsible, both for the libel on my character, and the slander of my title, which his notice contains; and that if its publication is the result of a conspiracy to defraud me of my property, I shall take care that the offenders be brought to justice as soon as a criminal court before which they can be tried, is legally organized in this territory.

Any person desiring to satisfy himself of my title to the above land, is invited to call on S. Brannan & Co., at Sacramento City, or on the undersigned, at the counting room of E. Mickle & Co., Clay street wharf, san Francisco. HIRAM GRIMES.

NOTICE TO SQUATTERS.—The undersigned begs leave to caution the public in general against squatting upon his farms or ranchos, as follows: One farm on the river Sacramento, extending to the mouth of Feather river and American Fork, known as Rancho del Passo.

Also, two ranchos on the San Joaquin river; one of 3 leagues, granted to Don Hernandez by Gov. Micheltoreno, and adjoining the same; being one undivided half of 8 leagues granted by Gov. Micheltoreno to Balentine Heguira, near the Pueblo pass.

All persons are hereby notified to abstain from taking possession of any portion thereof, at the peril of being proceeded against according to law.

TOWN OF BOSTON.—Lots at the town of Boston, beautifully situated at the junction of the American Fork and Sacramento rivers, are now offered for sale. The town of Boston is only a few hundred yards above Sutter's Embarcadero, on the north side of the American Fork, and in the immediate vicinity of the gold mines, and from its situation possesses superior advantages for business purposes. The land which forms the site of the town is twelve feet above the highest water mark, and the river is twenty-three feet in depth at the banks. It is believed that no place offers greater inducements for investments than this town, as in addition to the above mentioned advantages it has a fine climate, good soil, with an abundance of excellent water, and is free from inundation at all seasons. The town has been surveyed by Mr. J. Halls, and laid out in a convenient manner, and a plan of it can be seen, and any other information relating to it obtained on application to HIRAM GRIMES, s1 tf or, J. HALLS.

DRUGS, MEDICINES AND PAINTS.—E. D. BYRNE, & Co., respectfully give notice to the public that they have opened a store for the transaction af the above business, at Sacramento city, on 2d street, between J. and K. streets, and will at all times keep on hand as large and complete a stock as can be found in California. The selection of medicines has been made with the utmost care, and the genuineness and purity of the articles will be guarantied. Particular attention paid to orders from the mines, and from physicians, and prescriptions put up in the most careful manner. a28 3m

NEW YORK OF THE PACIFIC.—The City of New York, of the Pacific, situated at the head of ship navigation upon the bay of Suisun at its junction with the rivers Sacramento and San Joaquin, has been most accurately surveyed by Captain R. P. Hammond, U. S. A., and laid out in the most beautiful and convenient manner, and maps have been prepared by E. H. Rowe, Esq., engineer and land surveyor, pointing out clearly each and every lot within the surveyed limits of the city, and the proprietors now offer them for sale to the public. Along the entire water front of the city, a public street is laid out one hundred and fifty feet in width, beyond which no ground will ever be sold, and the proprietors therefore guarantee to the purchasers of all lots fronting on Water street, that no building shall ever be erected between their purchase and the water. There is no point along the entire water front of the city at which vessels of the largest class cannot lay within thirty feet of the bank of the river, and there are but few points where a large class of vessels cannot come immediately to the bank and discharge their cargoes, and at all points where this cannot be done, wharves will be built by the proprietors as soon as materials for building can be procured. The centre street of the city running North and South is one hundred feet in width, and all the other streets seventy-five feet; the lots are fifty feet front, by one hundred deep, and there is not a lot within the survey unfit for building purposes.

There are three public squares laid out within the survey, which will be given to the city, and the proceeds of the sales of all the lots fronting on the squares will be appropriated to the erection of public buildings. The titles to this property are perfect and complete in every particular.

There will be established immediately at the city a record office in charge of a competent official person authorized to take acknowledgements and record deeds, and where the original title deed to this property will be recorded, and where it is desired that all deeds for lots purchased should be immediately recorded.

The purchasers will be required to make improvements within a specified time.

The advantages of the location of this city over any other above San Francisco, are too well known to all who have either passed up the river Sacramento or San Joaquin to require any comment from the proprietors; but to all persons who have not had the opportunity to examine the site, we say that there is not in all California a point combining so many advantages for business purposes, with the advantages of a fine, healthy climate, dry soil, free from inundation, at every point, throughout the year, a superior harbor for vessels of the largest class, and an abundant supply of pure water at all seasons. To these advantages, we will add that permanent arrangements have been made for two steamers to commence running in all the month of August daily from San Francisco to the new city; and also two steamers of very light draught of water with tow boats prepared to navigate the Sacramento and san Joaquin, and their tributaries, from New York, below which they will not come. For lots or any information connected with the city of New York of the Pacific, apply at the office of the proprietors in Portsmouth square, san Francisco, and at the city of New York.

TOWN OF SUTTER.
(LATE SUTTERSVILLE.)

This town has has just been re-surveyed and laid out by Lt. J. W. Davidson, of the U. S. A., and lots therein are now offered for sale here, by the subscribers, and at the Town by George McDougald & Co. This town is beautifully situated upon the east bank of the Sacramento, within about two miles of Sutter's Fort, having a fine road leading therefrom direct to the mining region, and is some six miles nearer the mines by this road than any other embarcara point upon the river. A direct road is also being made on the opposite side of the river, which will, when completed, save 74 miles land travel to the mines. The locations upon the river banks for business purposes are never subject to overflow by the highest water known on the river, and the high ground back is the most desirable location for a residence of any point that can be selected upon the banks of the Sacramento.

TOWN OF SANTA CRUZ.

The survey of this Pueblo, one of the oldest in California, has recently been corrected and mapped by Lieut. Williamson, U. S. A. It is situated in the Bay of Monterey, and presents more advantages for an agreeable residence than any other in California, for it is well known that at no part of the whole country is the climate purer, water better, soil more fertile, and where so unlimited a supply of lumber and timber for building and fencing purposes can be procured at prices nearly as low as the United States. The town and planting grounds are laid out in lots of 50 varas square, a large number of which are now offered for sale at very moderate prices by the subscribers.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Some of the most desirable locations for private residences or business purposes in this town, can be purchased or leased of the subscribers.

Maps of the city of New York of the Pacific, the towns of Sutter, Santa Cruz, and san Francisco can be seen at the Land Office of the subscribers on Clay street, south side Portsmouth square.
